THE BATTLE AT MAOTIEN PASS

JAPANESE REPORT OF THE ENGAGEMENT

Loss to Russians Estimated at 2,000—Seizure of British Ships May Cause Complications—Various War Reports.

Kuroki's headquarters, via Fusan, July 18.—More Russian troops were engaged in yesterday's battle at Maotien pass than in previous engagements. There were probably double the number of those who took part in the fight of the Yalu river, while opposed to them were only one brigade and one battalion of Japanese forces. The Russian loss is estimated at 2,000. The burial of dead continues. Japanese casualties aggregated 300. Japanese infantry outflanked and outgeneraled the Russians at every point.

Shanghai, July 19.—The British steamer Laensberg from Wei Hui Wei to day reports that the Chinese Engineering company's steamer Peiping and cargo has been captured by a Japanese prize crew aboard. The news of the capture of the Peiping was communicated to the British admiral whose squadron is anchored in Lung Ching bay.

GUNS COVERED.
London, July 20.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Mail, in a dispatch dated July 18, says:

"A Russian cruiser has just passed through from Odessa with several guns covered with canvas on her decks. She also carried torpedo tubes."

GERMAN STEAMER SEIZED.
London, July 20.—The Suez correspondent of the Mail, under date of July 19, says:

"The German steamer Sambia, it is stated, has been seized by the Russians and is expected here tomorrow."

WAR REPORTS.

London, July 19.—In British official circles the recent seizure and overhauling of British ships in the Red sea by the Russian volunteer fleet of steamers is regarded as a grave international incident. The seizure of the steamer Malacca and her arrival in the Suez canal as prize of war on the way to Liban on the Baltic has come as a climax and the cabinet to day is considering what course to pursue.

The effect on the stock exchange was seen in the heavy fall in consols and other gilt edge securities on fears of international complications.

Suez, July 19.—The Peninsular and Oriental company's steamer Malacca, captured by the Russian volunteer fleet in the Red sea while enroute to Japan entered the canal to day on the way to Liban. One of the Baltic company's agents attempted to board the vessel, but the Russian commander refused him admission.

Chefoo, July 19.—A Chinese junk which left Port Arthur five days ago arrived this afternoon. Chinese say July 11 and 12 Japanese captured and occupied with 4,000 men an eastern fort of Port Arthur. Before reinforcements arrived Russians cut off 4,000 troops in the fort and exploded mines, resulting in the death of every Japanese soldier there.

Mukden, July 19.—A letter received to day from Port Arthur shows the beleaguered have implicit confidence in the ability of General Stoessel to keep out the Japanese. Fortifications are being strengthened daily. Major General Fock is resisting the pressure of Japanese at the advanced positions and the siege will drag on for a long time.

Tien Tsin, July 19.—About fifteen hundred Russian troops returned to New Chwang at midnight. Japanese forces are reported six miles distant.

London, July 19.—The foreign office this afternoon authorized the statement there is absolutely no truth in the story that Great Britain has informed Germany of the dispatch of a British fleet to Alexandria with the intention of checking the Russian illegality in the Red sea.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—The United States has informed Russia she will be glad to join Great Britain in the protection of seals at Commander islands. This act doubtless makes the best impression.

Germany has called attention to the seizure of mails of the Prince Heinrich in the Red sea, and has requested an explanation. These have not yet been given. The report of the commander not having arrived. Unless peculiar circumstances justified seizure the act will be disavowed.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—The foreign office says the Peninsular and Oriental company's steamer Malacca, seized in the Red sea by the Russian volunteer fleet vessel St. Petersburg, will be taken to Sebastopol and her case submitted to the prize court.

Ta Tohe Kiao, July 19.—Japanese seem to be moving their forces northward in the direction of Hui Yang and Simouchen. Fresh guns, mules and ammunition are being brought up daily and sent to points where Japanese expect to give battle. The movement northward is considerably impeded by Russian attacks. At Slatzia and Galtzlatun Russian gunners shelled Japanese camps and drove

CRISIS WILL COME TO DAY

ALLIED TRADES MAY BECOME INVOLVED

Sent Letter to Packers Asking for Joint Conference—Reply Will Be Made to Day—Situations in Other Cities.

Chicago, July 19.—The crisis in the stock yards strike will come to morrow afternoon. The allied trades unions in the stock yards, which are certain to become involved in the controversy, if it is not soon settled, held a conference this afternoon lasting five hours, and at its conclusion sent a letter to the packers asking for a joint conference between representatives of the strikers, packers and allied trades to see if a settlement of the strike along peace ful lines cannot be reached. To night there was no body who would say the packers would agree to the conference, and it is impossible to say with certainty that the meeting will be held.

Arthu Meeker, speaking for the packers, said he would send a reply in the morning to the letter received this afternoon from representatives of the allied unions. He declined to say, however, of what nature the reply would be.

The unions joining in the request for a meeting represent all trades engaged in the packing industry and they have joined in a final appeal for arbitration between the packers and striking butchers. President Donnelly, of the Butchers' union, said to night he was anxious to have peace, but that, unless it came with the proposed conference to morrow there would be a general sympathetic strike on the part of allied trades unions.

AT OTHER POINTS.

Omaha, July 19.—All is quiet among the 6,500 striking employees of South Omaha packing companies.

Kansas City, July 19.—A general strike in all trades allied with the butchers and killers is expected in labor circles unless a peace agreement is reached at Chicago.

St. Paul, July 19.—The blockade at Swift's packing house at South St. Paul continued to day and only officials and women stenographers were admitted. Charles Pfeiffer remonstrated with Mayor Lytle for failure to exert power in dispersing pickets and an argument followed. A man in the crowd called for a rope to hang Pfeiffer. He was arrested. Stock yards firms have made an appeal for additional protection, as they apprehend trouble to morrow.

Mayor Lytle asked General Flower, president of the stock yards, who called the meeting of business men to discuss the strike to leave town and that order would then be quickly restored.

St. Paul, July 19.—At a conference held this evening between the governor and a committee of strikers, it is said the strikers promised to declare the blockade of packing plants off to morrow morning. Manager Bangs, of the Swift plant, maintained to night that several expert union butchers had returned to work, in addition to those taken back yesterday. The men said they had no grievance and were tired of being out of employment.

AT OYSTER BAY

Lengthy Conference Between President and Former Secretary of War Root.

Oyster Bay, July 19.—After a conference with President Roosevelt which lasted far into the night and was resumed early to day, former Secretary of War Root left Sagamore Hill on important business. Despite the intense heat the president afterwards began to dispose of a mass of official business.

The president to day received the committee representing the coal miners and allied crafts of Wilkesbarre, Pa. They came to present a petition concerning the Colorado labor conditions and ask the president to investigate with a view of remedying these conditions. The petition represented the views of 25,000 union men in northeastern Pennsylvania. The president read it carefully and the informed the committee he would be glad to do anything he properly and legally could do to help conditions existing in Colorado. He indicated that an investigation of the labor troubles of that state are now being made by agents of the department of commerce and labor. Thus far the situation has not been such as would warrant interference by the federal government.

Following the petition the president talked with his callers on subjects of mutual interest.

CATHOLIC WOMEN IN CONVENTION.
St. Paul, July 19.—Over 300 women, representing various branches of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent association of the United States, attended the opening session of the national convention to day. Archbishop Ireland delivered a sermon. Mrs. McGowan, of Buffalo, N. Y., president of the association, received a number of congratulatory telegrams, one of them from President Roosevelt. The reading of Mrs. McGowan's report occupied the remainder of the session, which was adjourned until to morrow morning.

LIES IN A TRANCE.

Johnstown, Pa., July 19.—Joseph Prossig is lying at his home here in a trance, and has been in that state since Tuesday last. He cannot move nor speak, nor food passes his lips, and he does not seem to be breathing, yet his heart is beating at a normal rate and it seems to the physicians as if all other organs are performing their functions. Eight years ago he had a similar experience, and when it was over he said he knew all that was going on, but could not move a muscle.

SENTENCED TO HANG.

St. Louis, July 19.—Lambert Niehaus, convicted of killing Thomas Fluegel on December 29 last, was to day sentenced to hang September 6.

BUNCOED A PREACHER

Two Men and a Woman Arrested at Baltimore—Minister Purchased Mining Stock.

Baltimore, July 19.—Two men and a woman are locked up at police headquarters charged with "buncoing" Rev. John Rose, a retired Protestant Episcopal minister of this city out of $5,450. They are William Hooper, a broker of this city; Miss Virginia Hamilton, who claims to be a native of Nebraska, but who for the past year has been giving lessons in vocal culture here, and John Lawrence.

Rose says he purchased from Lawrence a block of stock in the "Cripple Creek Gold Temple Mining Company" at 41 per share, heuring an option on 10,000 shares at that figure. He paid Lawrence $5,450 cash. Later he accompanied a "Mr. Bell," who negotiated the deal between Rose and Lawrence, to Philadelphia, where it was arranged to sell the stock at a handsome profit. Rose thereupon drew a check payable to Lawrence on a local trust company for $4,550. This check was found in Lawrence's possession when arrested. He became suspicious the deal was not straight and notified the police Sunday. The police have a description of "Mr. Bell" and G. H. Davis, who was visited in Philadelphia and said he would buy the stock at $3 per share.

PETTIGREW MAY CHANGE AGAIN

Ex-Senator Makes Laudatory Statement Regarding W. J. Bryan—Uncertain What Course to Follow.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 19.—Ex-United States Senator Pettigrew, of this city, who was chairman of the South Dakota delegation to the St. Louis convention, has created a general sensation by giving out an interview here, in which he virtually "bolts" the nomination of Judge Parker for the office of president on the Democratic ticket.

Since the ex-senator walked out of the Republican national convention at St. Louis, in 1896 he has been something of a free lance in politics, having first been a silver Republican, then a populist and finally, a few days before the Democratic state convention in this city on March 30 last for the purpose of electing delegates to the St. Louis convention, he formally declared himself a Democrat.

Since that time he has been the dictator of Democratic affairs in South Dakota. The interview which has created a sensation among the Democrats of South Dakota related to the details of the work of the St. Louis convention and concluded with these words: "Intellectually and morally Bryan towered so far above his opponents in that remarkable discussion (regarding the adoption of a gold standard plank) that they seemed but pygmies in comparison. Eloquent, honest and fearless, he stands forth to day the grandest figure in American political life, and is the only person that came out of the convention with added honors and great luster to his name. A political party that would discard his leadership for the leadership of Belmont and Hill and the former or slave owner of the south, certainly has not exercised that judgment and conscience that forbodes success."

The treasurer reported his own expenses as $414, while the secretary said it was only $37. The discrepancies, it is explained, are due to the demoralized condition of the secretary's records.

No explanation is given of charges of Grand Treasurer Need's extravagance. Need's reports show eighty-six district deputies drew $3,039 at the Baltimore reunion last year, while the standing committees and grand lodge drew $11,052.

Judge O'Brien, the new head of the order, said to night the auditing committee had explained the financial affairs satisfactorily; that there is nothing to sensational reports, and that the discrepancies were due to the incompleteness of the secretary's records.

To night the following were elected by acclamation:
Grand esteemed royal knight—F. C. Tomlinson, Winston, N. C.
Grand esteemed lecturing knight—Chas. W. Kaufman, Hoboken.
Grand floor—W. W. McClellan, Pittsburg, Pa.
The ballot resulted in the election of the following:
Grand treasurer—J. K. Toner, Charlevoix, Pa.
Grand esteemed leading knight—R. J. Woods, Sioux Falls, S. D.
The band contest was concluded to night, but no decision will be rendered until to morrow night. There were seven competitors, among them the Seventh regiment band, of Chicago, forty-two pieces, and the Dubuque Military band of Dubuque, Iowa, thirty-two pieces.

FIRE LOSSES.

Rheinland, Wis., July 19.—Fire late to day destroyed thirty houses and one saw mill. A change of wind saved the city from total destruction. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

Detroit, Mich., July 19.—The Michigan Central's paint shop and a car shed were burned to night. Loss, $50,000.

JEWISH MILLIONAIRES BALK.

Berlin, July 19.—The German Jewish committee having in charge the funds collected for the relief of the victims of the Kishineff massacre, issued a statement explaining their delay in making public the accounts of the committee. The statement says in part:
"The explanation is painful to us Jews, but the scandal must nevertheless be made public."
The statement then states that after the massacre several Jewish millionaires promised to subscribe 100,000 roubles for the relief of those left destitute, but they soon regretted the impulse. It was only after incredible delay that the committee was able to secure 50,000 roubles out of the subscribers, the millionaires resorting to many cunning tricks to liberate themselves from the undertaking.

Papers commenting on this fact, assert that the Israeli millionaires of Kishineff resent the type of Jew which provokes anti-Semitism.

TIED OF STRIKES.

Chicago, July 19.—Wentry of the turmoil and hardships encountered while struggling for a living in the face of strikes and lock-outs, forty-two families of the strikers left Chicago this afternoon to return to Austria-Hungary. There they will receive less pay, they say, but their employment will be more steady and bereft of peril.

CRITICISED BY HEAD OFFICER

ACTS OF SECRETARY OF ELKS DENOUNCED

Reynolds Stays Away From Convention and Is Not Candidate for Re-election—Financial System of Order Criticised.

Cincinnati, July 19.—There have been various rumors among the Elks here regarding the absence of Grand Secretary Reynolds, of Saginaw, and his announcement that he is not a candidate for re-election, but the climax came this afternoon when retiring Exalted Ruler Fanning most severely criticised his administration to the office and caused a sensation in denouncing certain features of it.

Grand Treasurer Needs, in his report, criticises the financial system of the order. He suggests the various committees should be called together by the grand exalted ruler only, and that he should be held responsible for business transacted and expense coming from such meetings. He refers to a banquet tendered the grand exalted ruler by New York lodge No. 1, Feb. 16. On that occasion fourteen members of grand officers attended the meeting and turned in bills amounting to $300. He also criticizes the statement of individual expenses of those who attended the Baltimore reunion. He thinks the grand lodge should get down to the millage base.

O'BRIEN ELECTED.

W. J. O'Brien of Baltimore, was elected grand exalted ruler of the Elks by a majority of 370.

The Elks held afternoon and night sessions to day. In the election for grand exalted ruler W. J. O'Brien, Jr., of Baltimore, the administration candidate, received 710 votes; Samuel H. Need, Cleveland, 370. Nominating speeches were made for seven candidates—grand secretary, two grand treasurers, three grand trustees, two esteemed leading knights, one each for grand tier, esteemed loyal knight and esteemed lecturing knight—when a recess was taken from 7 o'clock until 9 o'clock for the purpose of having the nominations printed on the Australian ballot.

The extravagance in expenses of certain officers and discrepancies between different reports caused much agitation among visiting Elks. The secretary reported the expense of the grand exalted ruler as $5,704 and the treasurer made it $3,858. The secretary reported his own expenses as $5,553 and the treasurer said it was $3,614.

The treasurer reported his own expenses as $414, while the secretary said it was only $37. The discrepancies, it is explained, are due to the demoralized condition of the secretary's records.

No explanation is given of charges of Grand Treasurer Need's extravagance. Need's reports show eighty-six district deputies drew $3,039 at the Baltimore reunion last year, while the standing committees and grand lodge drew $11,052.

Judge O'Brien, the new head of the order, said to night the auditing committee had explained the financial affairs satisfactorily; that there is nothing to sensational reports, and that the discrepancies were due to the incompleteness of the secretary's records.

THE MACCABEES.

Detroit, July 19.—With readjustment of rates as the most important business for consideration the triennial review of the supreme tent of the Knights of Maccabees of the World opened to day. A membership of nearly 400,000 is represented by 100 delegates. Supreme Commander Markey's report showed a net gain of membership in three years of 124,709.

RAN INTO OPEN SWITCH.

Stanhope, Iowa, July 19.—The Atlantic Express, east bound, on the Chicago North western ran into an open switch. An engine and four cars left the track. Engineer Wells and Fireman Carter, of Clinton, were killed. None of the passengers were injured. It is alleged the engineer ignored a danger signal.

IOWA DEMOCRATS

Fight Between Hearst and Anti-Hearst Factions Did Not Develop—Candidates Chosen.

Iowa City, July 19.—Harmony was the keynote of the Iowa Democratic convention here to day. The prospective fight to a finish between the anti-Hearst and Hearst Democrats did not develop and the factions vied with each other in nominating and seconding the nomination of all candidates. An effort to humiliate National Committeeman Walsh, who is also a member of the state committee, but limiting his vote in the latter body to matters not subject to contest was defeated in the resolutions committee by a vote of 4 to 5. Apart from defeat in the Walsh matter the anti-Hearst men were in absolute control and they now govern the machinery of the party in Iowa. The following ticket was named:

Electors at large—W. O. Schmidt, of Davenport, and J. B. Romans, Denison.
Secretary of State—Charles A. Dickson, Sioux City.
Auditor—Edgar P. Medary, Waukon.
Treasurer—Henry Riegelman, of Des Moines.
Attorney general—Maurice O'Connor, Fort Dodge.
Railway commissioner—J. P. Monatrey, Fairfield.
Supreme Judge—J. W. Sullivan, of Keosauqua county.

The platform adopted by the convention is exceedingly simple, ratifying the St. Louis platform, endorsing nominees of the national convention and pledging them loyal support. All nominations were made by acclamation save one, that of auditor—Edgar P. Medary, of Waukon, defeating C. E. Monroe.

"We stand for the policy of taxation that will protect the masses from the excessive and extortionate taxation for the benefit of the few. We believe in protecting every man in the full enjoyment of the fruits of his labor, diminished only by proper payment for the support of the government, economically and honestly administered. We stand for tariff reform because without such reform the American consumer is condemned to a perpetual system of larceny and fraud. We favor a wise, conservative business like revision of the tariff. No issue of greater importance was ever presented to the people than the question of control and regulation at the great trusts. No party, or no man should make war on corporations organized on a sound basis for the purpose of prosecuting an honest and legitimate business. One of the greatest dangers to the peace and prosperity is the determination of our opponents to establish over the seas colonial possessions. Imperialism is their hope in whose wake follows militarism, which proved the undoing of nations of the old world."

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS

Meet in Convention to Nominate State Ticket—Adjourn Until This Morning.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 19.—The Democratic state convention was organized to day by the election of Congressman Vandiver as temporary chairman and P. J. Nolan, of Lagrange, as secretary. In his speech Vandiver, disclaimed any intention or desire to introduce racial rivalry, expressed the hope the convention would nominate a ticket that would stand for the fundamental principles of Democracy and concluded:

"If William J. Bryan and David B. Hill can both vote for Alton B. Parker, certainly we may proclaim the white angel of peace once more hovers over the Democratic council chamber. Then, if, as staunch a free silver man as I am, recognizing that at present it is not an issue, can follow Parker as he followed Bryan in 1896, it may be safely assured that every loyal Democrat will do the same, and, if so, the shout of triumphant Democracy that will go up from Missouri next November will be echoed from ocean to ocean and the genuine song of victory shall once more be heard in the land."

After the usual welcoming speeches and announcement of committees the convention adjourned until evening.

The crowd seeking admission at the night session of the convention was so great the doorknobs were swept aside and the crowd poured into the hall, delegates and sightseers mixing indiscriminately. During the confusion a motion was made and carried that Champ Clark address the convention, but he could not be found. The report of the credentials committee was not ready and after a brief session, during which pandemonium reigned, the convention adjourned until to morrow morning.

It is feared among delegates there may be a bolt of those instructed when the convention takes up nominations. Mr. Folk said he felt certain there will be no discord.

FOR MURDER.

Cripple Creek, Colo., July 19.—Sheriff Bell to day directed information charging Pearl Skeleton, miner, arrested in Pueblo two weeks ago with the Independence depot murders, would be filed to morrow.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN

MAY BE OPENED IN CHICAGO BY PARKER

Efforts Being Made to Have First Big Gun of Campaign Fired There—Gorman Offered Chairmanship.

Esopus, N. Y., July 19.—It is reported there will be a great effort made to get Judge Parker to begin an active campaign in the middle west with a speech at Chicago soon after the notification ceremonies. It is understood Mayor Harrison of Chicago is anxious to have the first big gun of the campaign fired there and have Parker and Bryan on the platform together.

The following telegram was received to day from the Iowa Democratic state convention, dated Iowa City, and signed by H. J. Stiger as chairman:

"Iowa Democrats in state convention assembled congratulate you and the nation on your nomination and prospects of your election. We wish you God speed." Parker sent the following: "I beg you to assure the convention over which you preside that its message of congratulation and good wishes is very greatly appreciated."

GORMAN ASKED.

New York, July 19.—Senator Gorman, as the result of conferences of distinguished Democrats here last night and to day, has been asked to become chairman of the national committee. He has taken the request under advisement, but it seems certain he will decline.

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, July 19.—W. J. Bryan was here to day. He said that the fight for economical reform within the Democratic party instead of being over has in reality just begun. The nomination of Judge Parker instead of interfering with these reforms will open the way.

DIAMOND ROBBERS.

Stockton, Cal., July 19.—Harry J. Kendall, who with Mrs. Sabin-Brown, was arrested in this city accused of committing a diamond robbery in Chicago, were taken east to day by Sheriff Whitlock of Vermillion county, Illinois. When the case of his companion was called to day she failed to appear and her cash bond of $2,500 was forfeited.

Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give him entire relief. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all leading druggists.

PARENT MEDICINES

A man that compounds or invents something that is just a little better than the next best thing, is certainly entitled to the best share of the profits to be derived from the sale of his article. So he patents or copyrights to protect his interests. Patent goods are good goods; poor goods are never patented. We have 20 years of trial behind us to give us the assurance that we have the best medicine compounded for the cure of dyspepsia, sick-headache, biliousness, indigestion and all stomach disorders. We protect the public as well as ourselves by keeping the formula a secret, as long as we make it we know it is made right and it cures these diseases. Druggists tell us that it is the one medicine that the sale is ever on the increase. To get the best remedy for dyspepsia or indigestion are the druggists for Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills, price 25c per box, but only one for a dose. For sale by L.

FLOWERS.
Flowers, flowers everywhere.
Flowers to look at and flowers to wear.
All the day's worry seems taken away,
With flowers to look at and flowers to wear.

Each day, new
Each little flower from each little seed,
Giving sore hearts the comfort they need,
Better than words from human hearts
It is not the wishes that count—it's deed.

If it were not for flowers this world would be naught
But a tiresome, wearisome battle hard fought,
O! this life would amount to nothing
ours,
If it weren't for the sweet, the aw-smelling flowers. —A. E.

PICKING WINNERS.

July Outing: The first thing that the habitual or casual visitor to the race track does is to attempt to pick the winners. The expense incurred in attending the races is considerable, and as there is always a vision of wealth held out to the successful better nearly everybody is willing to take a chance.

Picking winners is a business. It is done in many ways, from shutting the eyes and sticking a pin through the name of a horse to the most elaborate system of handicapping.

The first thing, then, for a man to do in looking over a list of entries in a race is to examine the races that each horse has run at the distance of the race in question, or as near it as possible. Consideration must be given to the jockey who will in all probability have the mount, the speed there is in the race, so as to have an idea whether the pace will be made for the horse or whether he will have to cut it out for himself. He may be a front runner or the opposite, and this has much to do with the result of a race. Some horses want a fast track and others only show their form when the mud is fetlock deep. Some horses run consistently while others seldom run two races alike. Footnotes in charts have to be read to see how the horse pulled up in his last start if, unfortunately, the handicapper was not a spectator of the race. Then, as time is an important factor, the man who is trying to find the winner must have the records of the various tracks at his finger tips, so as not to lose valuable time in looking them up on every occasion. After all these things are decided on a figure is given the horse and the next is considered.

Although there is usually only one handicap on a card during the day, every race has to be handicapped by the man who hopes to pick the winners by handicapping. To do this thoroughly it requires at least half an hour to the race and any attempt to hurry over it will lead to disaster.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

How the Boys of an English School Provide a Victim.

When a crowd of boys in a boarding school have settled on some mischief by common consent and have been detected and ordered to bring forward the ringleader to be punished, there is often great difference of opinion as to who the ringleader really is. The boys of Winchester college, in England, have hit upon a scheme for settling the matter, says a master of the school, the Rev. G. M. A. Hewett.

When the master demands a victim as a sacrifice of atonement for breaking rules, the boys get all together, and each puts twopence into a hat. Then each boy's name is written on a slip, and lots are drawn. The one who is chosen to be the victim takes the collection in the hat and delivers himself over to the master as the ringleader. Then when he has been sufficiently punished he goes downtown and consoles himself with ice cream bought by the common fund.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Colorado's Busy Governor.
James H. Peabody, governor of Colorado, has been lending the strenuous life since last August, when the state began to be stirred by the miners' strike that has since resulted in many deaths, riots, court controversies and crimes of various degrees.

Governor Peabody is a native of Vermont and is fifty-one years old. He was educated in the public schools and as a young man was a noted athlete. For a time Governor Peabody worked as a dry goods clerk in Boston, later going to Colorado. He settled in Canon City, his present home, and engaged in mercantile business. Fortune favored him, and in 1885 he became a banker. Governor Peabody is married and has a family.

Beaten All Around.

"A friend of mine keeps a hotel out in Ohio," said Representative Beldier the other day, "and the last time I saw him he had a tale of hard luck that made me pause and consider."

"He had a good hotel, and to clinch this idea with his patrons he put up a sign, 'A week's board free if you can beat this hotel at a dollar a day!'"

"A chap came along and stayed for two days. Then he left by way of the window without paying his bill. He was captured in the next town, brought back and placed on trial before the justice of the peace."

"The justice heard the case and decided that the man was not guilty, as he had certainly beaten the hotel for two days' entertainment. Then he shooed the man out of town and went around to the hotel and collected the week's board for himself."

A Story of Disraeli.

From the diary of Sir Mount Stuart Grant Dufré: At a dinner during the Franco-German war Disraeli did not open his mouth till near the end of the entertainment, when he observed in his most sententious manner: "The French embarked in this war because they conceived that they had the superiority in arms of precision. They had the chapsot and they had the mitrailleuse" (which he pronounced "mitrallouse"), "but of the third engine, called a man, they did not possess even a single specimen." This said, he relapsed into perfect silence.

Credited to Bishop Dudley.

The late Bishop Dudley of Kentucky used to delight in a story of a little colored girl.

"Supposing," he asked her, "that you were walking along the road and saw a low hanging branch and on that low branch was a nice, fat chicken. What would you do?"

"Don't ask me that question, boss," she begged.

"Oh, yes; tell me. What would you do?"

"Well, boss, you know I's only just an infant in de kingdom."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Invasion of Tibet.

According to recent advices from Simla, the British military expedition in Tibet has been ordered to advance on Lassa, the city of mystery, on June 20, the Tibetans having made up their minds to fight rather than settle the outstanding differences with Great Britain. The dala lama, apparently with the connivance if not the support of the Chinese resident, has refused to arrange any sort of a settlement with the British commissioner.

Colonel F. E. Younghusband, British commissioner and chief in command of the expedition, has a force of 4,000 soldiers, with mountain guns and Maxim and thousands of carriers and transport animals. Brigadier General J. L. R. Macdonald, who is the military commander of the mission, has had much experience in fighting the hill tribes of India.

NUMBER FOUR.

When I was a young man, I was professor of languages in the Blank Institute. One of our lady teachers and I became very warmly attached.

The duties of Miss Hanson had become too onerous for her delicate frame. Gladly would I at once have made her my wife and thus have obviated the necessity of her earning her own support, but in the then state of my finances such a thing was not to be thought of.

A wealthy gentleman of my acquaintance who had several young children, wanting a first class governess for them, I eagerly proposed Miss Hanson, and she was duly installed in her new situation. She found it to be easy, pleasant and profitable, and I turned my attention exclusively to the duties of my profession, resolved to postpone for a year or two the pleasant duties of courtship. I judged that we would both be better fitted for the faithful discharge of our engagements seeing each other but seldom than we should otherwise be. To be sure, it would have pleased me well to have received frequent letters from my esteemed Clara, but as she expressed herself very much averse to letter writing I would not require her to distress herself for my sake.

Several months after Miss Hanson entered upon her work as governess the eldest son of her employer came home. He admired Miss Hanson from the first, and it was not long before he made her aware of the fact. He was pressing in his suit, he was wealthy, he was present with her, and my lady-love transferred her affections and her engagement to him. The employer, discovering what was taking place, was enraged at his son's folly and at the lady's presumption, as he termed it, and would listen to nothing but an utter abandonment of the engagement. He turned the young lady away, and she proceeded to New York in search of another situation. She had entered into arrangements to teach for six months—I do not remember where—when her lover suddenly appeared before her and insisted upon a private and immediate marriage.

She consented, and after the ceremony the bridegroom went his way and the bride hers for the term of six months. At the expiration of that time they again met and proceeded to the city of Detroit to reside.

All this time no spirit whispered in my ear of danger or trouble. Calmly I labored on, only now and then pausing to think contentedly of my Clara and to feel renewed satisfaction that she was so well placed. But suddenly I heard of her conduct—of all except her marriage—and of course she was lost to me as much as though I had known her to be wedded. I could not overlook such deceit and heartlessness.

Five years rolled away, and on a wild, stormy night I arrived at Detroit. Feeling very much fatigued, I asked to be shown at once to my room in the hotel. Hardly had I been left alone when some one knocked on the door next to mine.

"Who's there?" said a woman's voice.

"Father," was the reply. "Mrs. Jenkins is below and wishes to see you. I told her that you were not very well and had retired, but she will take no denial."

"Then she must come up here, pa. We can never dress again and go down to her."

"Let me see. What was Mrs. Jenkins' maiden name?" asked one of the voices in the next room when the father had withdrawn.

Hitherto I had been sitting in contemplative mood before my fire, hearing because I could not help it, the partition being so very thin.

"Why, she was Clara Hanson—don't you know. She was our schoolmate in Boston years ago."

You may judge that there was a very sudden and violent alteration in my state of mind. In breathless expectation I awaited the coming of the visitor. She had really married Jenkins then. Presently that well remembered step drew near. There was a noisy meeting, much laughter, many questions, many fervent expressions of affection, of delight at being once more together.

"But, come now, let us hear each other's adventures," said Clara, and when her friends had related theirs she began to talk of hers.

"Can you imagine my feelings as I heard that woman tell what I have already told and much more? I heard all as if in a dream, yet I know that it was reality—as well as anything can be in this unreal world. Presently I rose and, stealing softly into the hall, laid just before the door of the room where Clara was one of my cards and in excited silence awaited the result. It was what I had reckoned on. Mrs. Jenkins saw it instantly as she stepped from her friend's room. 'Some one has dropped a note,' I heard her say. 'I heard her move toward the light. Then she gave a little shriek and rushed back to her friends.'

"Oh, Mr. — has been here! He must have seen me come in and followed me. What shall I do?"

"Who is Mr. —? You did not mention him. Why do you fear him?" asked the friends.

"Oh, he was an old beau of mine," said Clara, "and I would not meet him for the world."

"Why, how many beaux did you have?" was the laughing inquiry.

"I had a great many, and I was engaged to four other men when I married Mr. Jenkins. Mr. — was the fourth one."

GEORGE RYAN WANTED

Horse and Buggy Belonging to Erickson and Kennedy Obtained by Misrepresentation and Driven to Beardstown.

A man giving his name as Charlie Carp applied for a horse and buggy at Erickson & Kennedy's barn at 12:30 Monday afternoon. He did not pay for the horse and said that he wanted to go to the poor farm. When at 9 o'clock nothing had been heard from him, telephone messages gave the information that he had left the horse and buggy at Beardstown.

The man said he was from Frankfort and that he would have to go to the bank for money and that if they did not want to trust him he would not take it. The liverymen allowed him to go and when he did not return Messrs. Erickson & Kennedy began to telephone to find trace of him. They telephoned to the poor farm and were informed that a man answering the description had been there and represented himself as a horse dealer. The buggy which he was driving was of the high Stanhope style and was easily traced. He was next heard of at the farm of Henry Ogilvie, by whom he had been formerly employed under the name of George Ryan. Here he inquired the way to Virginia. Several people at Arcadia, through which he passed, noticed the horse and vehicle.

The man stopped in Virginia and obtained a little lunch. Several residents noticed that he behaved strange and that the horse was in bad condition from fast driving. Before they made up their minds to detain him he left on the road to Beardstown. Mr. Kennedy telephoned there immediately and found that the man had just left the horse and rig at the livery stable. The Beardstown police were notified but could find no trace of him.

The horse was in a pitiable condition when Beardstown was reached. Mr. Ogilvie, for whom the man did considerable work this spring, says his name is George Ryan and his folks live in Milwaukee. He was tall, slim, smooth shaven and sandy complexioned. He weighed 140 pounds and was about 5 feet 10 inches in height. He wore a panama hat, tan shoes and light pants. The firm of Erickson & Kennedy are justly incensed over the cruel treatment of their horse and offer a liberal reward for Ryan's capture.

John Stevenson was sent to Beardstown this morning to bring back the horse.

SPENT PLEASANT EVENING.

Mrs. Charles Whipple of Springfield, Mrs. G. T. Antrous, Mrs. M. Filson, Mrs. S. Sullins, Miss Stella Wroe, Miss Alice Biggers, Miss Marie Sullins, Miss Elsie Duckett and Master Donald Duckett were, delightfully entertained recently at the home of Mrs. C. F. Duckett. After a few hours of pleasure, they were conducted to the dining room where they were daintily served with various kinds of pies, cakes, fruit and lemonade. All were loud in their praises of the culinary art of their hostess.

POLICE NEWS.

James Silcox was arrested for assault and battery by Captain Kennedy.

George Jones was arrested for the same offense by Policemen Murgatroyd and Fernandes.

Charles Thompson, keeper, and three inmates were arrested by the night force for gaming.

OPENING DAY

CENTRAL ILLINOIS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Springfield Won Team Cup Championship—Jacksonville Was Third—Marcey Osborne Winner of Bogey Cup—To Day's Program.

Tuesday was the opening day of the Central Illinois Golf tournament and from nine o'clock in the morning until late in the afternoon the Country club links were dotted thick with players chasing the little ball.

A small gallery watched the play during the day, but the attendance increased towards evening when the threatening clouds disappeared.

Springfield won the team cup championship and another winning will entitle Springfield to permanent possession of the trophy.

Quincy was second and Jacksonville third. The local players were all in good form except Scurlock and Ledford, and taking into account the amount of work they have had to do in connection with the tournament it is surprising the showing they made.

Marcey Osborne played an even game throughout and won the Bogey cup by a handsome margin.

In the driving contest, which was held at five o'clock, Douglas Cadwallader, of Springfield, carried off the honors easily.

Below is given the team and individual play in yesterday's contest and the pairs as drawn in the play for the championship cup which begins to day:

Springfield News: The Springfield & St. Louis railway has commenced to take options on the right of way south of Carlinville. This road means business and as soon as it has all the preliminaries settled construction work will be commenced at once.

The company is yet undecided as to what road to take and will take right of way options from Carlinville to Gillespie following the old B. & O. grade. The other route is from Carlinville to Bunker Hill. The latter route parallels the C. & A. track to Rinkard and from there will go south. In case the Bunker Hill route is taken spurs will be run up the Big Four from Bunker Hill to Gillespie and Stanton. By the time the options are secured the company will know which will be the most feasible route.

SAVINGS 5

BITTER FEELING

Aroused in England by the Seizure of English Vessels by Russians.

London, July 20.—Leading English newspapers again editorialize in gravest tones on the Russian seizure of British vessels. Even the conservative standard declares: "The nation looks to the foreign office to take more effectual action than the ordinary conventions of diplomatic intercourse prescribe. The case is not one for fastidious treatment. If nothing is done officially to relieve the painful strain, the irritation of this country may grow into stubborn resentment. We cannot, even for the sake of peace, sit down under a series of undignified provocative measures."

A similar warlike tone pervades almost every other newspaper. All details in connection with seizures of ships are printed in the most prominent type. No such bitter feeling has been aroused in the English press since the German emperor's telegram to the Boers. From all sides come urgent demands for the government to take swift action to prevent a recurrence of the seizures.

"Russian piracy," as one paper heads it, takes precedence of all other news. The cabinet has decided to make a protest to the Turkish government.

LAND SEEKERS.

Yankton, S. D., July 19.—Seven thousand people registered for Rosebud land at Yankton today. The total registration at Yankton alone is over 40,000 and will reach 60,000 before the closing Saturday.

Honolulu, S. D., July 19.—Land registrations to day were 3,400. There is a tremendous crowd here and the registration to morrow will be increased.

WILL SUPPORT ROOSEVELT.
New York, July 19.—Oscar S. Strauss, of this city, who describes himself as a "Liberal Democrat and latterly a Cleveland Democrat," and who was minister to Turkey during Cleveland's first administration, has notified President Roosevelt of his determination to support him.

MATRIMONIAL

WARD-SYKES.

William C. Ward, of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Harriet Sykes, of Waseca, Minn., were married in the office of the county clerk Tuesday morning by Esquire Arenz.

The groom is a traveling salesman and they will go to Detroit, Mich., to make their home.

SOUTH DAKOTA DEMOCRATS.

Aberdeen, July 19.—Although a large number of Democrats to the state convention, which will be held here to morrow, have already departed for the state, the party here, however, are here. For the nomination of governor Benjamin Ash of Pierre, appears the strongest candidate, although the name of Stranaky and that of J. A. Cleaver of Huron, are mentioned. John Wade of Aberdeen, seems to be the likely candidate for secretary of state.

SETTLED THEIR QUARRELS.

St. Louis, July 19.—The last point at issue between the board of lady managers of the world's fair and Miss Lavina Egan, former secretary, was settled yesterday. The salary tendered, which Miss Egan had up to that time refused to accept, was paid to her. Miss Egan took tea with the members of the board present after receiving her check.

"Mention My Name."

Mark Twain and W. D. Howells were one day lunching in a cafe in New York. Two overdressed young men entered, and the first said in a loud voice:

"Waiter, bring me some bisque of lobster, and a chop. Just mention my name to the cook, too, so that everything will be done to my liking."

The second young man said: "Bring me some sole with peas, and tell the cook who it's for."

Mr. Twain gave his order a moment later. He said, with a wink at his companion:

"Bring me a half dozen oysters, and mention my name to each of them."—Christian World.

COUNTRY HOME WITH 379 ROOMS

Summer Residence of New York Millionaire Recently Erected in State of Vermont.

The summer residence of Frederick B. Jennings, of the law firm of Stetson, Jennings & Russell, of New York, which has been in progress of erection for the last eighteen months is just completed and is being occupied by the family, says the Boston Globe.

It stands on a high point of ground between Bennington and North Bennington, Vermont, and commands a wide expanse of territory.

The house is 170 feet in length, 50 in width and three stories high. All told it contains 379 rooms. This includes twelve bathrooms, closets, parlors, offices, servants' rooms, billiard rooms, kitchens, guest rooms, arranged in suites, dens and other apartments.

The house is lighted by electricity, heated by steam and hot air, with fire places in a large number of rooms.

The rooms on the first floor are twelve feet, ten inches high, done in mahogany, oak, maple, birch and other costly wood. Those on the second floor are ten feet, ten inches high, those on the third floor nine feet. The entire establishment is connected with the apartments of Mrs. Jennings by telephone.

The walls of the building are of magnesia limestone. The roofs of the piazzas are supported by turned granite columns eighteen inches in diameter.

It is considered the finest place in Vermont and the contract price for the house and barns was $250,000. The grounds adjoining comprise about ten acres, elegantly laid out.

LAWN SOCIAL.

The Sunshine Circle of Centenary M. E. church held an ice cream and cake social on the church lawn Tuesday evening, which was very well patronized. The Sunshine Circle is a mission band of young ladies under the direction of Mrs. T. H. Rapp and Mrs. S. H. Ervin, and the proceeds of the social will be used for missionary purposes.

The young ladies of the circle who served efficiently as waiters were Misses Ethel Ewert, Bessie Brecken, Vera Smith, Helen Campbell, Jeanette Taylor, Florence McFall, Ames James, Irene Black, Bertha Mills, Mary Clampt, Lillian Jackson and Lella Smith.

William Osborne was before Squire Reid Tuesday morning on a warrant sworn out by Robert Meline charging malicious mischief. It seemed to Mr. Meline and the other parties interested that the act of breaking the show window was not done with evil intent, but rather as the senseless act of a drunken man, and Osborne was discharged after paying the damages and costs, which amounted to $4.85.
